The officers and executive committee of the Washington county Veterans association met at 10:30 Saturday morning at Grand Army hall in Montpelier and decided to hold the summer meeting at Dewey Park Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23. The president, E. J. Foster, of Waterbury Center, presided and Secretary J. K. Wilson, of Worcester, was the clerk. About 15 were present at the meeting.

The May party is already an assured success. Those who do not attend will miss a good time. Our advance sale has been as large as that of the Valentine party. As this party is gotten up purely for a social time and not for a money-making affair, the ladies have been very considerate about the price of tickets, which are only 30 cents each and bring them within the reach of all. There is no reason for anyone to stay at home tonight when such a delightful opportunity presents itself to while away a few hours to tripping to the charming strains of Gilbertson.

The Rutland Herald says of the Elite Lady Minstrel show which was presented by Rutland women, "The first performance of the Elite Lady Minstrels, held under the ladies auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association, was given at the opera house last evening before a large audience and was a remarkably successful affair. The minstrels were under the direction of Prof. W. B. Leonard of Bellows Falls. Rehearsals have been held for the past 10 days under the direct charge of Prof. Leonard." The same show will be presented by Barre women, at the opera house, Friday and Saturday evenings, May 6 and 7, and also Saturday afternoon.

Letter to C. A. Heath.

Barre, Vt.

Dear Sir: A painter complained that our cans are too full; unhandy; spill.

It's a way we have; the handler not to be full; but we have a weakness for full-mouthed. Our gallon contains eight pints; the usual "gallon" is seven.

We'll think it over again; but we like a full can. How much shorter would you like a barrel? Seven gallons would be the proportion.

Short-measure suggests that the shortage is probably not in the cheapest ingredient.

Guess we'll stick to four quarts to a gallon, and fifty gallons a barrel.

A CALICO BALL.

Queen of the Forest Circle Gives It. Hale's Pavilion, May 6.

The sixth annual calico ball by the Queen of the Forest circle, No. 557, will be held at Hale's Pavilion, May 6, with Gilbertson's orchestra in attendance. The annual prizes will be offered: first, to the lady having the prettiest calico dress will be given a lady's hand bag given by Abbott & Co., and the gentleman accompanying her in the march will be given a gent's umbrella, presented by Mr. Levin; second, to the lady wearing the next prettiest dress will be given a picture, presented by Barry & Williams, and the gent accompanying her in the march will be given a pair of kid gloves, presented by Moore & Owens; third, to the lady wearing the next prettiest, will be given a box of handkerchiefs and her male friend in the march, a pair of slippers, presented by the People's Shoe store.

The ladies are to make a necktie to correspond with their dresses and place them in an envelope and leave at the door on entering. The gents are to receive these envelopes on entering. Gentlemen 50 cents, ladies 25 cents.

"Busy Izzy."

George Sidney as "Izzy" in the musical farce comedy, "Busy Izzy" will be the attraction at the Barre opera house May 5. Sidney's statue stands him in good stead in this characterization, for it has given him an individuality which is unmistakable in the ranks of comedians who essay the character of the stage Hebrew. The Jew, as shown by this comedian, is as pleasing to the Hebrew race as to all others. This good natured, laughing little fellow, who is always imposed upon rather than imposing is ever ready for any new scheme. It is all wrapped up in musical farce, and songs, dances and specialty features fill in making "Busy Izzy" an entertainment for all kinds of laughter. There are two acts to the entertainment, a department store and a summer hotel. Among the new songs are "Anna, My Dixie Anna," "Tommy and Me," "I Never Had Such a Time," "I Want to Go Back to Old London," "The French Song-brette," "She Reads the New York Papers Every Day," and "Beautiful Dream Come True." The company numbers 45 people and contain many first water fun makers.
